Banging Gavel Brews Opens Its New Brewpub, Hosts Official Grand Opening on December 14, 2023

The historical landmark Vogt Building in Tinley Park houses a new brewpub

WHAT: Long awaited, much anticipated. It's here: the official grand opening of The Vogt House by Banging Gavel Brews Brewpub in the historic Vogt Building in downtown Tinley Park. The community, beer aficionados and historians alike, have been anticipating the opening since Banging Gavel purchased the building in June 2017 and began restoration.

The official grand opening celebrates the first introduction to Banging Gavel's beers brewed on site at The Vogt House, with the first beers on tap being a few new styles from Banging Gavel, including a Saison, a Berliner Weisse, a Vienna, and a Dry Irish Stout.

WHEN: Thursday, December 14, 2023

About Banging Gavel Brews

Brothers Jim and Ed Richert took a homebrew class in 2013, which lit the flame. Ed’s daughter, Beckie and her husband, Kyle O’Connor, joined the cause as founding partners. This family-owned craft brewery has developed 28 styles of beers and introduced them at various local craft beer festivals and craft beer shops since 2014. JT Rea joined as head brewer in 2021 and Ed Nemecek came on board in 2023 as executive chef and director of operations. Banging Gavel Brews will open The Vogt House Brewpub and Bier Garten, its brewpub, including its production brewery, taproom and restaurant, in the historic Vogt House in downtown Tinley Park on December 14, 2023.
